Re. City of Delray Beach Community Redevelopment Agency
West Atlantic Avenue Property

Dear Mr. Costello:

It is with great pleasure that we present to you for consideration our Letter of Intent for the acquisition of approximately 7 acres of land situated on the south side of Atlantic Avenue between SW 6th Avenue and SW 10th Avenue Delray Beach, Florida. After much research and community input, we have prepared the Project described herein with a specific objective of it being a catalyst of significant JOB CREATION with an initial impact of hundreds of permanent jobs within the West Atlantic Avenue Corridor of Delray Beach. In addition, and certainly no less important, the Project would further the overall objectives identified and refined over time by the Delray Beach CRA, City of Delray Beach and its citizens.

Attached please find a Letter of Intent, information on Prime Group's experience and qualifications, and a project description along with a proposed site plan. It would be our pleasure to have the opportunity to work with Delray Beach CRA in developing another Project which can serve the community in providing Jobs, Services, Retail and Office Space, and rental apartments all of which is much needed in the West Atlantic Avenue Corridor and neighboring areas. Today, the opportunity exists to greatly enhance the entrance to the City and blur the lines of the East and West corridors while maintaining local services, businesses and job creation within the neighborhoods being served.

Prime Group has a proven track record in Delray Beach evidenced with the successful development of the Fairfield Inn and Suites on West Atlantic Avenue. That project was completed in accordance to the planned schedule and specifications and has been very successfully received by the community. We were able to exceed our local hiring goals during the construction of the hotel and continue to do so during current operations. We have also exceeded the initial goals set in our DIA agreement regarding local employment. That impressive outcome is the result of the aggressive outreach program in the local community that we continue to implement. We intend to continue those initiatives if selected to develop this project.

As you know, we have been waiting patiently to see the development of the subject property for several years since it is situated next to our Fairfield Inn and Suites. It is unfortunate that various issues with the developer, that was initially selected, have led to the delay of this project. In the interim, we have successfully completed a multitude of successful real estate development projects throughout Florida. We feel that we are the best qualified company to complete this project and are ready to apply all of our assets and skills to make this project a major success.

Thank you for your consideration of this submittal. We look forward to having the opportunity to further discuss the details of this proposal in the near future.

Best Regards,

1. Purchase or Lease Option: At Buyer's discretion, closing shall proceed in either of the following ways:
 - a. Purchase of the Property for the price of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000), at the Closing (as hereinafter defined) subject to customary closing pro-rations and adjustments, or;
 - b. Through a land lease utilizing the CRA's Land Value Investment Program (LVI) for a minimum of 40 years with terms mutually acceptable to both parties.
2. Assets to be Purchased: The Property shall include all of the assets to which Owner has ownership and title, including both real and personal property, related to or used in connection with, the Property and its operations. The Property shall be delivered to Buyer free and clear of all liens and encumbrances other than those approved by Buyer in writing prior to Closing in accordance with the Definitive Agreement (hereinafter defined).
3. Definitive Agreement: Upon the mutual execution of this letter, Owner and Buyer agree to work in good faith to expeditiously negotiate and execute, within 15 days, a purchase and sale agreement (the "Definitive Agreement"). This letter shall not be binding on either of the parties and there shall be no binding obligation on either of the parties to, as applicable, purchase or sell the Property unless and until the parties have negotiated and signed the Definitive Agreement, except that the agreements set forth in paragraph 4(d) is hereby expressly acknowledged to be binding upon the parties hereto. Owner and Buyer shall mutually provide limited, but reasonable and customary, representations and warranties in the Definitive Agreement consistent with a transaction of this nature.

4. Due Diligence:

a. Buyer shall have a ninety (90) day period after the mutual execution of the Definitive Agreement (the "Due Diligence Period") during which to complete its due diligence, including such studies, analyses, and evaluations of the Property, as Buyer may require in its sole and absolute discretion and at its sole cost and expense. Owner shall provide Buyer and its consultants or agents reasonable access to the Property and the Property's senior management team for purposes of conducting its due diligence. The Definitive Agreement shall provide, in relevant part, that Buyer may in its sole and absolute discretion, terminate the Definitive Agreement at any time prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period. If Buyer elects to terminate the Definitive Agreement, the Initial Deposit shall be fully refunded.

b. Within five (5) days after the Effective Date, Owner, at no cost to Owner, shall make available to Buyer (to the extent in Owner possession or readily obtainable by Owner and not already delivered to Buyer prior to the Effective Date) copies of any and all architectural plans, blueprints in print and CAD format if available to Owner, permits, authorizations, approvals, copies of existing active building permits, plans and specifications related to the development of the Property, and any other information required by the Buyer to complete Due Diligence. Any delay in delivery of the above mentioned items will enlarge the Due Diligence Period by the equal number of days of the delay.

d. After the mutual execution of the Definitive Agreement, Owner shall cease all efforts to market the Property, terminate any and all discussions or communications of any nature whatsoever with any other party regarding a sale or other disposition of the Property until Closing or an earlier election by Buyer not to proceed with the transaction contemplated hereunder, shall not solicit offers, and shall reasonably cooperate with Buyer in Buyer's due diligence effort.

5. Earnest Money Deposit: Following receipt of a fully executed and binding Purchase & Sale Agreement (the "Definitive Agreement"), Buyer shall place or cause to be placed an earnest money deposit in the amount of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) (the "Initial Deposit") in an interest-bearing account with Shore to Shore Title. If, during or prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, the Buyer notifies the Owner that it elects to terminate the Definitive Agreement, the Initial Deposit and any accrued interest thereon, in its entirety, shall become fully refundable and returned to Buyer. At the end of the Due Diligence Period, if Buyer has not elected to terminate the Definitive Agreement, Buyer shall deposit an additional One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) (the "Additional Deposit"), which together with the Initial Deposit and all interest earned thereon (the "Earnest Money Deposit") shall become non-refundable, except as otherwise provided in the Definitive Agreement. The Earnest Money Deposit shall be credited against the Purchase Price at Closing.

6. Certain Conditions: This purchase would be subject to the following conditions, among others:
 - a. Except as provided in paragraph 2 above, the Owner will deliver good and marketable title to the fee simple interest (and, as applicable, the leasehold and easement interests) in the Property. Except for exceptions to title which are accepted by Buyer in accordance with the Definitive Agreement, all interests above shall be free of encumbrances of any kind.
 - b. Owner will make available the Delray Beach CRA's Development Infrastructure Assistance Program (DIA) program for this project and will provide short term financing with terms that are similar to those provided for the development of the Fairfield Inn on West Atlantic Boulevard.
 - c. Owner will contribute fifty percent of the cost of the two parking structures that will have a total of 340 parking spaces.

Closing: The Closing of the Property shall occur no later than thirty (30) days following: receipt of a non appealable site plan approval from all pertinent government entities for 42,000 SF of retail space including a full-service supermarket and pharmacy, a 48,000 four story office building with retail on the first floor, a 108 room hotel, 68 rental apartments, and 511 parking spaces with 340 parking spaces situated in 2 parking structures.

7. Commissions: No brokers have been involved in this transaction.
8. Prior Communications: This letter shall be deemed to supersede all prior communications, written or verbal, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

Owner and the Buyer shall diligently pursue to draft and execute a formal Definitive Agreement within thirty days of execution of this Letter of Intent which shall encompass the terms hereof. In the event that after good faith and diligent effort the parties fail to enter into a formal, binding agreement within thirty days from the effective date of this letter of intent, then this letter of intent shall expire.

Thank you for your consideration. We look forward to having the opportunity to further discuss the details of this proposal in the near future.

Rail

Daytona Beach is served by Amtrak by way of a Thruway Motorcoach connection between the beach side and Amtrak’s DeLand Station.

QUALITY OF LIFE

At first glance, the Daytona Beach area is a typical Central Florida east coast community with a barrier island, wide white sandy beaches, and an inland town and residential area. What individualizes the quality of life in Daytona Beach — woven within the motorsports, a beach you can still drive on, and the Daytona International Speedway is a rich diversity of arts, culture, and heritage.

Summer temperatures, while reaching 90 degrees and above during late morning and early afternoon hours, tend to drop into the 80’s later in the day because of the sea breezes and frequent afternoon showers. Winters are mild with just the right amount of cold-air. Long periods of rain and cloudiness are rare. While hurricanes have been known to occur — because of Daytona’s latitude, they are rarely considered to be much of a threat.

Once a major benefit to the area — the cost of living, home values in particular, have seen a dramatic increase. Even with its recently adjusted average median home price of $86,700 and an average appreciation last year of 12.30%, the area continues to be comparatively more affordable than the majority of Florida locations. In fact, compared to the rest of the country — the cost of living in Daytona Beach is 15% lower than the national average, and unemployment is a mere 6.10%.

DELRAY BEACH MIXED USE PROJECT

SUBMITTED BY

PRIME INVESTORS & DEVELOPERS

ANTICIPATED USE

Prime Investors and Developers ("Prime") proposes to construct 42,000 SF of retail space including a full-service supermarket and pharmacy, a 48,000 four story office building with retail on the first floor, a 108 room hotel, and 68 rental apartments. The project will have a total of 511 parking spaces with 340 parking spaces situated in 2 parking structures.

There is already strong interest from several supermarket chains in renting retail space in the project and the office space has had strong pre lease interest. In addition to the supermarket, we have also identified interest from tenants that would bring health and wellness facilities, a financial institution, and family and/or social entertainment to the project. The apartments will provide much needed rental housing in the area. Twenty percent of the units will be restricted for workforce housing. Ten percent of the retail will have special rates in order to encourage existing local tenants to remain in the neighborhood.

(1) Market Considerations:

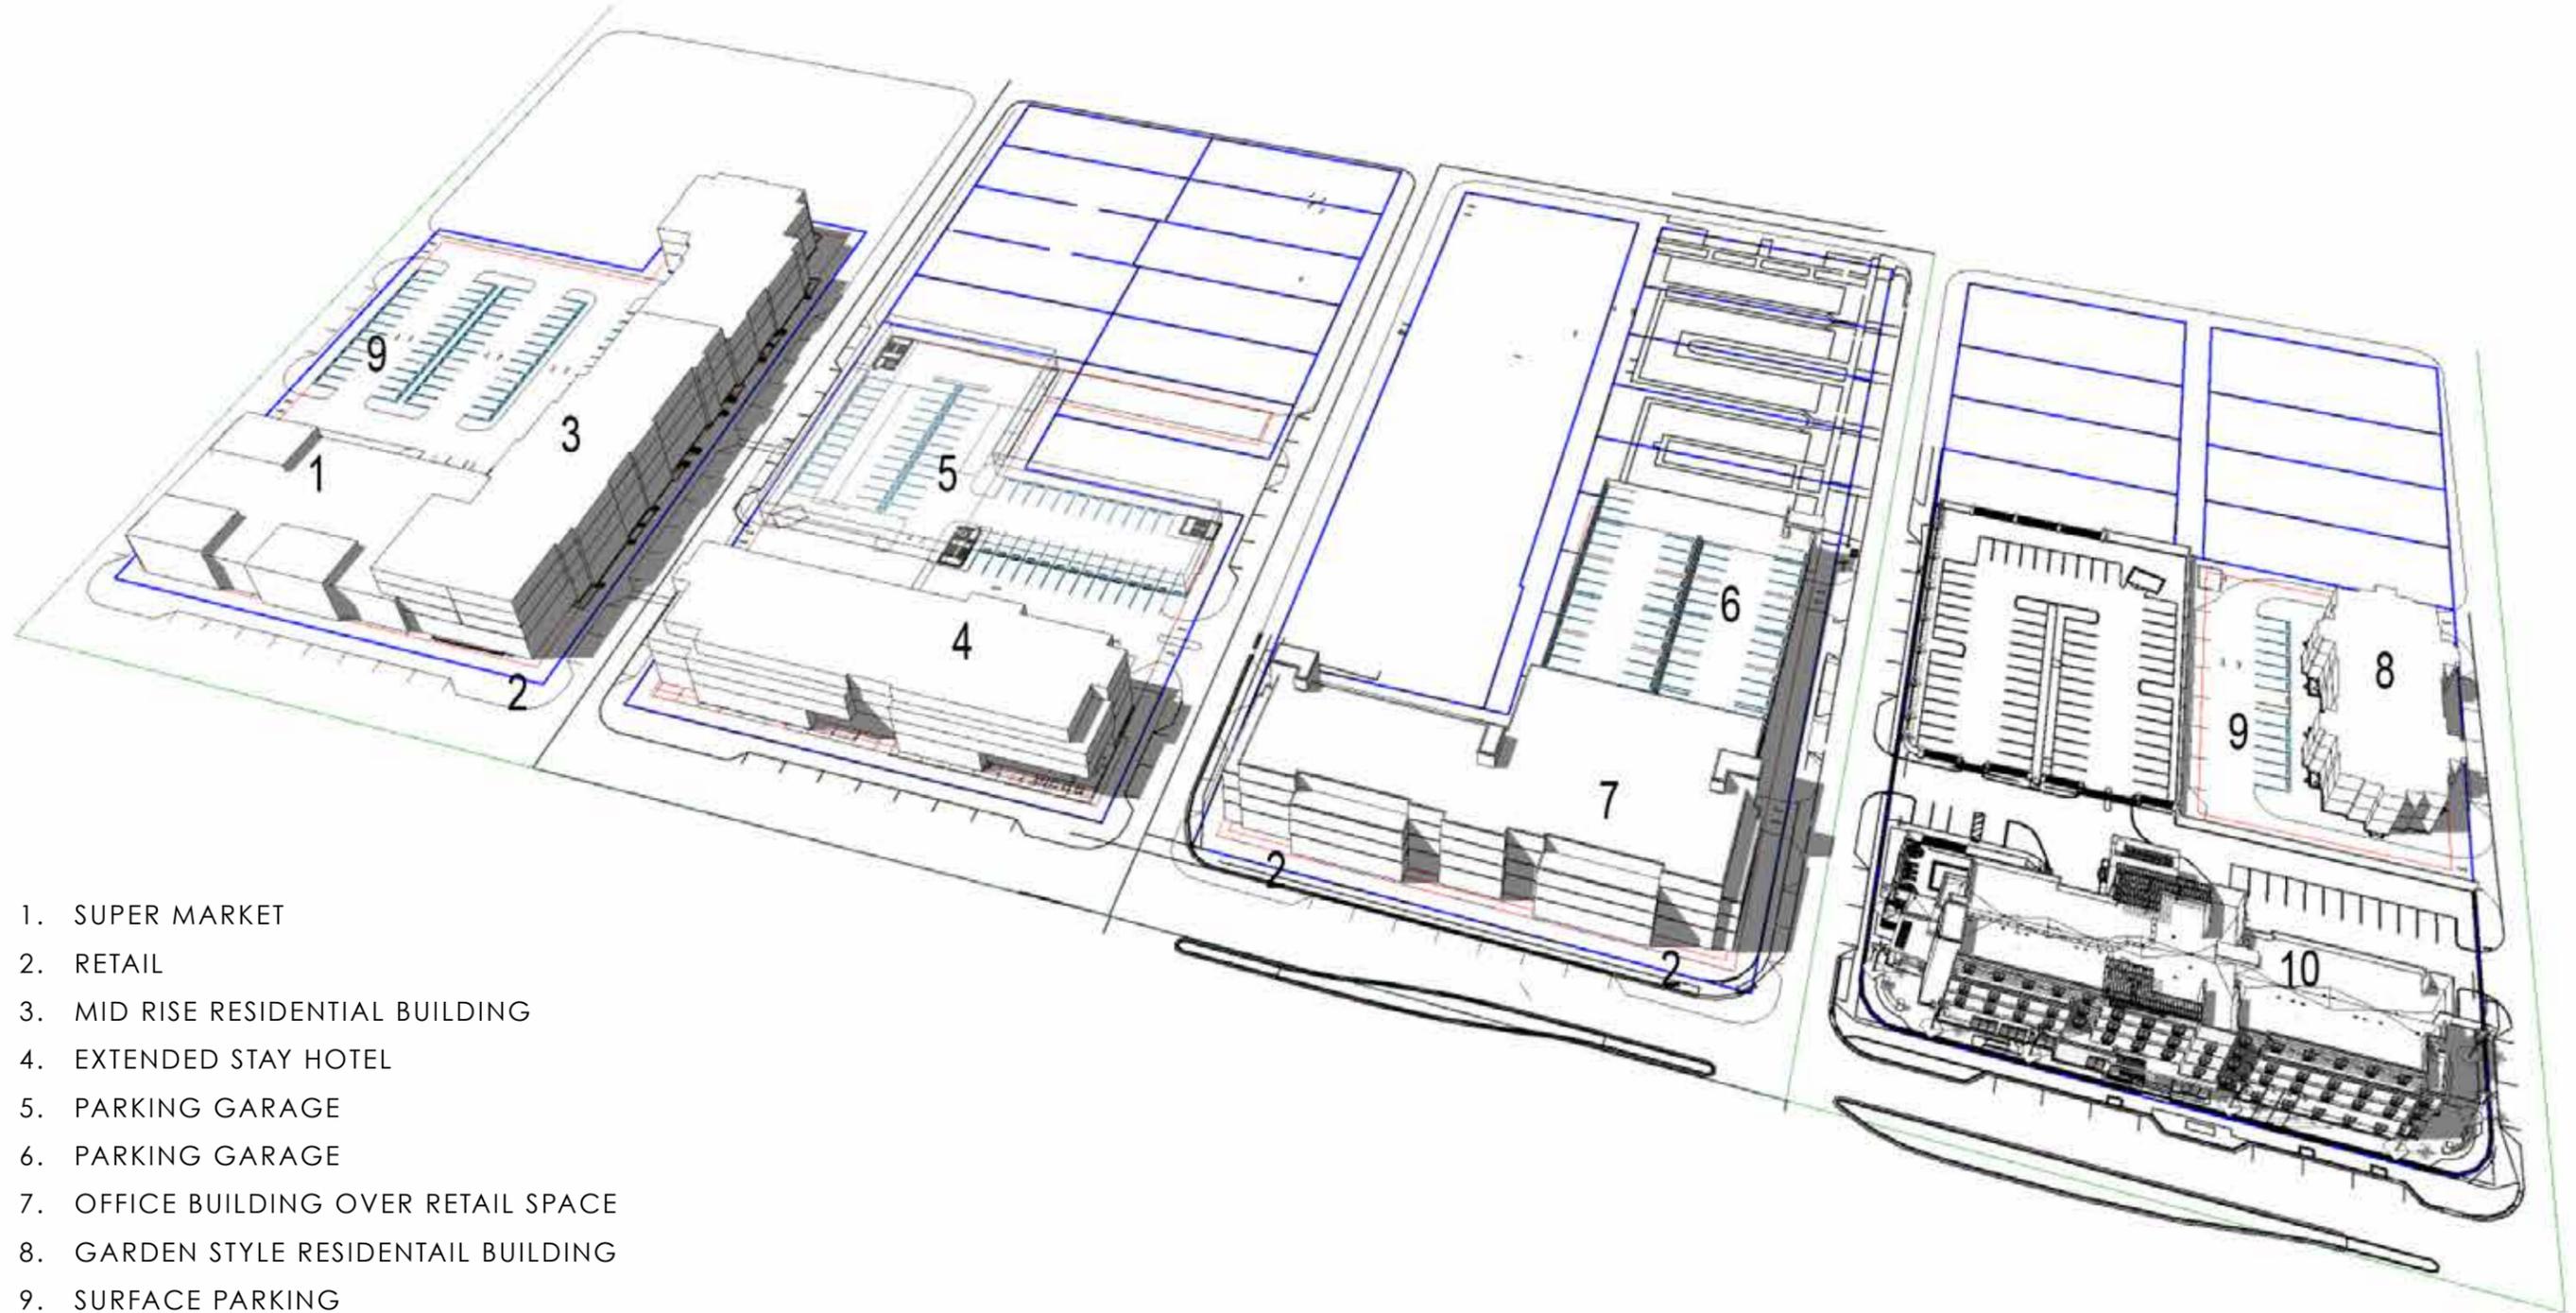

- (a) Now is the right time.
- (b) A reason to work in West Atlantic Avenue and not just through it to reach downtown.
- (c) Increase office and retail potential aimed at energizing the redevelopment of West Atlantic Avenue.
- (d) Create an outlet for the West Atlantic Corridor community's entrepreneurial initiatives for the local production of new jobs.
- (e) A mixed-use project at this location will increase the visibility of West Atlantic and will lead to additional interest in future development for other parcels in the area
- (f) Stimulate existing local businesses and generate renewed interest in the rich historical character of the surrounding neighborhoods.
- (g) The proposed Project would substantially increase the City's tax base and provide substantial TIF amount to the CRA.
- (h) Greatly increase local job opportunities.
 - (i) Expand the communities' cultural heritage and form the backbone for local growth.

(2) Architecture:

- (a) Compatible design that supports growth and unification in accordance with Delray Beach Village like character.
- (b) Building design that engages and incorporates the surrounding neighborhood. Help establish a "West Atlantic Plaza" by constructing buildings that give the various sites a sense of scale, unity and uniformity while serving the community
- (c) A design that interacts with Atlantic Avenue at the pedestrian scale and encourages walking while reinforcing a gateway to the City
- (d) Urban character that gives life to the neighborhood
